President's Report

In review, we have had some considerable successes and some failures.

Successes:

CCTV has had its ups and downs with lightning strikes, water repairs and ongoing negotiations and building relationships with Council.

Anti graffiti work has been a great success. The Wines of the West Festival, our major fundraiser, was a great success. 'Christmas in Katoomba' continues to build year to year, after being non existent for many years. We can claim to some extent, the success of getting Studleigh Place and the Commuter Carpark up and running – we have been pushing for years with RTA, Council and Phil Koperberg. The Butterfly Walk mural has started off with great success.

Perhaps our failure has been our inability to convince Council to upgrade maintenance to the streetscape in the Katoomba CBD – as recently as this week, they said they were going to improve the maintenance schedule for Katoomba Street.

We need more involvement from our businesses in the street. When there's a big issue on, everyone comes to help but it's a little harder to get businesses out when things are quieter. We do understand that's hard to come to meetings after a long day but their support is a necessary part of a voice for Katoomba.

There are many people to thank:

Thanks to Shane Desiatnik from the Gazette who regularly comes to cover our meetings, thanks to Councillor Janet Mays who also makes herself available to come to our meetings, thanks to Mark Jarvis and The Carrington Hotel for their marvellous support and hospitality and thanks to Chrissie Thompson for the secretarial work she does for the Chamber, thanks to the Chamber Committee Members this year, and thanks to all the members of the Chamber who come regularly and/or support or lend a hand to keep the Katoomba Chamber on its feet.

Treasurer's Report

To follow on from Robert's comment on building relationships, campaigning for the car park opposite Gearins and the disability carpark on the Old Goods Yard started 4 years ago. We have had to chip away – Robert has been to so many meetings, building relationships. This week's meeting with the new General Manager of Council went well and we'll build on this next year.
